Be a BOOK AMBASSADOR! Loan your copy of Towers Falling to someone in our community that might like to read it. Insert the invitation below into the book. When they finish reading the book, interview them using the suggested questions below or create some of your own questions based on your understanding of the book and 9/11. (cut here and give to community member along with the book)

INVITATION:

Dear ________________________,
I thought you would like to read Towers Falling by Jewell Parker Rhodes!

I thought you would like it because:

Your name: ________________________________
Community member name: ________________________

After your community member reads the book, here are some questions you might ask:

What did you think about the book?

Where were you on 9/11?
What was your immediate reaction?
How did it impact you?
How did you react?
How is life different now versus before 9/11?

Interview Notes (or record with permission using your phone or tablet):

Date of Interview: ______________________________